The public hearing for the 2015 Town of Yorkville budget is scheduled for Monday, November 17th, 2014, at 7 pm. in the Union Grove Municipal Building located at 925 15th Avenue in Union Grove. The Town Board room is located on the 2nd floor at the east end of the building.

The proposed 2015 budget will be presented during the hearing. The 2014 tax levy (to be collected in 2015) and the amount of the 2015 highway expenditures will be approved.

Following the hearing, the Town Board will meet to adopt the official 2015 budget.

A summary of this budget appears on Page 5 of this newsletter. A copy of the detailed budget may be studied at the town office prior to the date of the hearing. Our office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Annual Dog Licensing

Town residents are required to annually license each dog aged five months or older that they own. Proof of a current rabies vaccination must be provided with the dog license application before any new dog license is issued. Town ordinances only permit three dogs on each property; any number of dogs in excess of this requires a kennel license. Dog licenses for 2015 are available in mid-December and are valid until December 31, 2015. Licenses are $10.00 for neutered and spayed dogs and $15.00 for unneutered and unspayed dogs. Registrations not submitted by April 1, 2015 are subject to a $5.00 late fee. Any owner found to be in possession of an unlicensed dog is subject to a citation of $124.00 for a first offense and $187.00 for a second offense.

The Winter Solstice

Winter inspires both joy and woe. Some people can't wait for the cooler weather, snow, skiing and ice skating, curling up by a fire, and the holiday spirit. Other people dislike the frigid temperatures, blizzards, and wild weather.

The word solstice comes from the Latin words for "sun" and "to stand still." In the Northern Hemisphere, as summer advances to winter, the points on the horizon where the Sun rises and sets advance southward each day; the high point in the Sun's daily path across the sky, which occurs at local noon, also moves southward each day. At the winter solstice, the Sun's path has reached its southernmost position. The next day, the path will advance northward. However, a few days before and after the winter solstice, the change is so slight that the Sun's path seems to stay the same, or stand still. The Sun is directly overhead at "high-noon" on Winter Solstice at the latitude called the Tropic of Capricorn. In the Northern Hemisphere, the solstice days are the days with the fewest hours of sunlight during the whole year.

Did you know that the Yorkville No. 4 one-room school house at 17640 Old Yorkville Road is on the Wisconsin and National Register of Historic Places?

The building, purchased from the Yorkville School District by the Yorkville 4-H Club in 1966, has been the club's meeting place for many years. After the club members did some restoration to the 1885 brick building starting in 2009, the nomination to the register began. In May of 2011, the school house was officially added to the Wisconsin State Register of Historic Places.

Yorkville 4-H Club holds both county 4-H and Yorkville 4-H meetings and activities in the building. This past summer, a community garden was added to the property. This service project allowed club members and parent volunteers, along with veterans from the Wisconsin Veteran's Home here in Yorkville, to plant vegetable gardens. The fresh vegetables were used by the Veteran's Home.

Yorkville 4-H is proud to be the caretakers of this lovely one-room school house. Just another reason that the Town of Yorkville is a great place to live!

Message from Fire Chief Czerniak

Let me begin the fall newsletter with this year's national fire prevention theme – "Smoke Alarms Save Lives: Test Yours Every Month." Yes, I have mentioned changing your battery twice a year (spring and fall) and this ties in nicely with the national theme. In addition, add a check of your carbon monoxide alarm, especially as we will soon be having weather that will prompt the use of our homes heating system. We don't want a 911 call response when all that is needed is to replace the battery or buy a new unit.

Now that summer and vacation time has passed, it is time to remember school is back in session. Watch out for kids; whether crossing the street, boarding or unboarding the bus, or running after a stray ball or pet. Leaf burning, fall clean up, sending our new adult children to college with their safety tips and warnings, the evening residential fire pit; these are all on my list of reminders of when to think and practice fire safety.

The do's; remember to have the furnace checked, practice the escape plan and where to meet, clean the lint filter in your dryer and be sure the exhaust is clean and not restricted, clean the chimney, if appropriate, before your first fire in the fire-place.

Now to the don'ts; burning candles, handling smoking materials carelessly, leaving home with the dryer running, preparing meals when you have over indulged and are subsequently impaired.

Let me close with a sad note and that is a fond farewell to two past members that recently left us; Sue Chase and Jim Moxon. These two were members highly involved in our extra activities; education, fire prevention, fundraising and many community events.

Finally, remember we are always looking for new members and with the delivery of paramedic level service; this is especially true on the EMS side. Stop in or check our website for an application. Please stay fire safe this fall and winter!

Moon and Stars...

The peak night of the 2014 Geminid meteor shower will probably occur on the night of December 13-14, though the night before (December 12-13) and after (December 14-15) may offer a decent sprinkling of meteors as well. The show starts at mid-to-late evening and ends at dawn. The meteors tend to be few and far between at early evening, but intensify in number as evening deepens into late night. Don't let the late-night moonlight discourage you from watching after midnight, or during the peak viewing hours. These meteors are bright! No matter your location, the Geminid meteors will fall most abundantly in the wee hours after midnight on December 13 and 14.

On March 20, 2015 there will be a Total Eclipse of the Sun. This eclipse will not be visible from North America but will be visible from Greenland, Iceland, Europe, North Africa, and northwestern Asia.

The rise and fall of the tides on Earth is caused by the Moon:

There are two bulges in the Earth due to the gravitational pull that the Moon exerts; one on the side facing the Moon, and the other on the opposite side that faces away from the Moon. The bulges move around the oceans as the Earth rotates, causing high and low tides around the globe.

The Moon will be visited by man in the near future:

NASA plans to return astronauts to the moon to set up a permanent space station. Mankind may once again walk on the moon in 2019, if all goes according to plan.

Stars twinkle because the light we see coming from the stars travels through the atmosphere around the earth and there is turbulence in the Earth's atmosphere.

For North America the Earth is actually closer to the Sun in the Winter.

It takes the light from the sun over eight (8) minutes to reach the Earth. That means that if the sun blew up right now, we would have eight more minutes of life before we were affected as well.
