EXHIBIT A

Sec. 20-1015. Home-Based Businesses.

a. Purpose and findings of this section:

- (1) Establishes criteria for operators of home-based businesses in dwelling units within appropriate zoning districts;
- (2) Permits and regulates the conduct of home-based businesses as an accessory use in a dwelling unit, whether owner- or renter-occupied;
- (3) Ensures that such home-based businesses are compatible with, and do not have a deleterious effect on, adjacent and nearby residential properties and uses;
- (4) Ensures that public and private services, such as streets, wastewater, water or storm water systems, are not burdened by the home-based businesses to the extent that usage exceeds that normally associated with residential use;
- (5) Allows residents of the community to use their residences as places to enhance or fulfill personal economic goals, under certain specified standards, conditions and criteria;
- (6) Enables the fair and consistent enforcement of these home-based business regulations; and
- (7) Promotes and protects the public health, safety, and general welfare.

b. This section applies to any occupation, profession, or business activity conducted entirely within a dwelling unit and carried on by a member of the family residing in the dwelling unit, and which occupation or profession is clearly incidental and subordinate to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes and does not change the character of the dwelling unit. A home-based business is an accessory use to a dwelling unit.

No home-based business, except as otherwise provided in this section, may be initiated, established, or maintained in the unit except in conformance with the regulations and performance standards set forth in this section.

c. Types of home-based businesses. Three types of home-based businesses are defined and regulated under this section:

- (1) Type A residential home-based businesses. Type A residential home-based businesses are those in which household residents use the dwelling unit they occupy as a place of work, but no employees come to the site, and customers or clients are by appointment only. Type A residential home-based businesses do not require a permit or registration.

- a. Where allowed. Type A residential home-based businesses are permitted by right as an accessory use to a principal dwelling use. Type A residential home-based businesses are subject to the general regulations of this subsection.
- b. Permitted and conditional uses. The home-based business regulations of this section establish regulations and standards for home-based work activities rather than limit the range of work activities to a specific list of occupations or business types. Type A home-based businesses that comply with all applicable regulations of this section are permitted by right unless otherwise expressly stated.
- c. General regulations for Type A residential home-based businesses. All Type A residential home-based businesses are subject to the following general regulations:
 - 1. All individuals engaged in a Type A residential home-based business must reside in the dwelling unit in which the residential home-based business is located as their primary place of residence.
 - 2. Residential home-based businesses must be accessory and secondary to the use of a dwelling unit for residential purposes. They may not change the character of the residential building they occupy or adversely affect the character of the surrounding neighborhood. Residential home-based businesses may not, for example, produce light, noise, vibration, odor, parking demand, or traffic impacts that are not typical of a residential neighborhood in Yorkville. Residential home-based businesses must be operated so as not to create or cause a nuisance.
 - 3. Any tools or equipment used as part of a residential home-based business must be operated in a manner or sound-proofed so as not to be audible beyond the lot lines of the subject property.
 - 4. External structural alterations or site improvements that change the residential character of the lot upon which a residential home-based business is located are prohibited. Examples of such prohibited alterations include construction of parking lots, the addition of commercial-like exterior lighting, or the addition of a separate building entrance that is visible from abutting streets.
 - 5. Residential home-based businesses must be conducted entirely within the dwelling unit. Materials related to the home-based business must be stored entirely within the dwelling unit or an accessory structure.
 - 6. No window display or other public display of any material or merchandise is allowed.

7. The use or storage of hazardous substances is prohibited, except at the "consumer commodity" level, as that term is defined in 49 CFR 171.8.
 8. Only licensed automobiles, passenger vans and passenger trucks may be used in the conduct of a residential home-based business. No other types of vehicles may be parked or stored on the premises. This provision is not intended to prohibit deliveries and pickups by common carrier delivery vehicles (e.g., postal service, United Parcel Service, Fed Ex, Amazon, et al.) of the type typically used in residential neighborhoods.
 9. No nonresident employees are allowed except for the purposes of student instruction, teaching or tutoring.
 10. Up to four individual client or customer appointments are permitted at any one time. For the purposes of this subsection, each "client or customer" may be accompanied by his/her immediately family.
 11. The area devoted to the conduct of all Type A residential home-based businesses present on the subject property is limited to 33% of the dwelling unit's floor area or 750 square feet, whichever is less.
 12. The following uses are expressly prohibited as Type A residential home-based businesses:
 - i. Any type of assembly, cleaning, maintenance or repair of vehicles, equipment with internal combustion engines, or of large appliances.
 - ii. Dispatch centers or other businesses where employees come to the site and are dispatched to other locations.
 - iii. Equipment supply or equipment rental businesses.
 - iv. Eating or drinking places.
 - v. Funeral or interment services.
 - vi. Any use involving the use or storage of vehicles, products, parts, machinery or similar materials or equipment outside of a completely enclosed building.
- (2) Type B residential home-based businesses. Type B residential home-based businesses are those in which household residents use the dwelling unit they occupy as a place of work and either one nonresident employee or more than 4 customers/clients come to the site at any one time. Type B residential home-based businesses require a conditional use permit and registration.

- a. Where allowed. Type B residential home-based businesses may be approved as an accessory use to a principal dwelling use. Type B residential home-based businesses are subject to all applicable regulations of this subsection.
- b. Permitted and conditional uses. The home-based business regulations of this section establish regulations and standards for home-based work activities rather than limit the range of work activities to a specific list of occupations or business types. Conditional use permits approved as to Type B Home-based businesses may include conditions that vary from the provisions of this ordinance, depending on the unique characteristics of the home-based business under consideration, in accordance with the provisions governing the issuance of conditional use permits set forth in Chapter 55, Exhibit A, Chapter 20, Article VIII, Division 3.
- c. General regulations for Type B residential home-based businesses. All Type B residential home-based businesses are subject to the following general regulations:

Residential home-based businesses must be operated so as not to create or cause a nuisance.
 3. One nonresident employee is allowed with a Type B residential home-based business. Residential home-based businesses that have more than 4 clients or customers coming to the site at any one time, may not have nonresident employees. For the purpose of this section, the term "nonresident employee" includes an employee, business partner, co-owner or any other person affiliated with the residential home-based business, who does not live at the site, but who visits the site as part of the residential home-based business.
